

Child's Permanency Report

Audience

Managers and Practitioners

Aim

- To assist those involved in preparing reports in being clear about the difference functions, purpose and the potential audience for the report.
- To introduce the child's Permanence Report. BAAF Form P (previously Form E), which was introduced following The Adoption & Children Act 2002.

Objectives

- To explain what is a Child's Permanence report?
- Examine its contents, who can prepare CPRs & how to approach the task of preparing CPRs.
- Explore its purpose

Course length: - Half day

in the spirit

enabling individuals and organisations to enhance their performance