

Leadership Development

Audience

Managers and supervisors who have responsibility for leading others.

Aim

- To explore the difference between leading and managing.
- To provide an overview of management theory and styles and to examine their application in organisations.

Objectives

- Identify the key components of leading
- Identify the key components of management
- Explore the models of management and leadership in the organisation.
- Discuss managers and supervisors own experiences of leadership.
- Devise personal action plan to develop leadership skills.

Course Length:- 1 day

